

This is why you are applying for the paralegal position at Willow & Finch interested in the compassion with which Ms. Benning has approached her family's legal advocacy.

I have prepared trial binders for six years, overseen discovery, and attended emotionally sensitive client interviews with family court matters; I think my experience and empathy could serve you well.

Sincerely,

Rachel Nunez.