

Dear Recruitment Manager,

I am writing this letter to apply for your Fashion Designer apprenticeship at Belle Couture. I recently graduated from Parsons School of Design, having majored in Fashion Design, and I am ready to develop my technical and creative skills in a top fashion house.

My academic career focused on garment construction, adopting sustainability approaches, and mastering 3D design software. My senior thesis on "Minimalism Reimagined" revisited the concept of functional fashion with environmentally friendly textiles and was exhibited at the school's annual showcase.

It would be a splendid opportunity for me to learn and be associated with such an establishment as Belle Couture, which still lives up to its own existence in elegance and innovation. I look forward to discussing how my passion and skills could be an asset to your team.

Sincerely,

Sophia Patel
