

To Mrs. Langford,

I'm writing to express my interest in the full-time nanny position in Brooklyn that would take care of your two kids. I bring structure, flexibility, and a serene presence to every home I work in, having worked as a professional nanny for more than six years and as a preschool teaching assistant before that.

In my most recent position, I oversaw evening routines, meal preparation, and school pickups while providing care for a toddler and a six-year-old. In addition to being certified in pediatric CPR and first aid, I place a strong emphasis on consistent, creative play, and emotional validation.

I would adore the chance to meet and determine whether we are a good fit.

Kindly,

McAllister, Sarah
