

Dear Mr. Parker,

As a recent graduate with a degree in Hospitality and Tourism Management, I'm eager to begin my aviation career with Southwest Airlines. I admire your culture of heart-led service and innovation.

During my internship with a major hotel brand, I assisted hundreds of international guests with check-ins, special requests, and travel challenges. I thrive in fast-paced, multicultural settings and understand how to balance empathy with efficiency.

Southwest's reputation for teamwork and positivity is why I'm excited to contribute to your onboard crew.

Sincerely,
Diego Fernandez
