

Dear Ms. Kim,

I'm writing to express my interest in the Flight Attendant opportunity with United Airlines. I've always admired your emphasis on cultural connection and customer care at altitude.

With a background in hospitality and recent graduation from an intensive flight attendant academy, I bring strong interpersonal instincts, safety-first training, and a genuine desire to help passengers feel at ease—even at 35,000 feet. I'd be thrilled to bring that energy to United's crew.

Thank you for considering my application.

Warm regards,
Heather Lin
