

Dear Margaret,

I'd like to submit myself for consideration for the role of Jennifer in your upcoming production of Doris Freeman.

Mark Adle (I believe you two know each other?) recommended I reach out. I've trained with him for two years and recently completed a BFA in Acting from NYU. This role hit me personally—the storyline about the dog resonates with something from my own life.

I've included my headshot, résumé, and a link to recent footage. Thank you for your time.

Sincerely,
Robin Wright
